

CRIMINAL, REGULATORY & ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Our Criminal, Regulatory, and Administrative Law Group assists our clients in defending charges laid by police, government agencies, and self-regulatory organizations under the Criminal Code of Canada, the Provincial Offences Act, and other regulatory legislation.

We also assist our clients in Coroner Inquests.

Chairs

Howard Borlack
416-860-0054
hbborlack@mccagueborlack.com

Peter F. Yaniszewski
416-860-0037
pfyaniszewski@mccagueborlack.com

Services

Our Criminal, Regulatory, and Administrative Law Group has responded to complaints and defended criminal, quasi-criminal, and regulatory charges commenced under the following statutes:

- Law Society Act;
- Occupational Health and Safety Act;
- Technical Standards and Safety Act;
- Human Rights Act;
- Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act;
- Environmental Protection Act;
- Securities Act;
- Police Services Act;
- Private Investigators and Security Guards Act;
- Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act; and
- Criminal Code of Canada.

We have also represented clients in licensing, public policy, and legislative matters.

For the benefit of our clients, McCague Borlack LLP also offers a “24/7” Emergency Response Team. We will attend whenever and wherever our clients seek on-scene assistance that may arise with respect to any type of incident.

Publications

- Ontario Court of Appeal releases decision in expert evidence case