Alan practices civil litigation with an emphasis on the defence of property and casualty claims. He has acted for a variety of clients in all forms of personal injury claims, including motor vehicle tort claims, occupiers' liability, and products liability. He also provides advice on insurance coverage issues and points of law, and subrogated claims.

Alan represents clients before all levels of provincial court and has extensive mediation experience.

As the Chair of the firm's Sports, Recreation & Resort Liability Practice Group, Alan leads the lawyers at MB to advance the depth and knowledge of this group, and then share this knowledge with our clients through articles, webinars and seminars.
