Profile

John's practice centres around Personal Injury Litigation, including plaintiff and defence work, and primarily in Tort and Accident Benefits. Clients and colleagues enjoy working with John as he is always friendly and helpful, and is known for responding quickly to their queries.

In 2003, John graduated from Humber College with his Law Clerk Diploma. As well, he is fluent in both English and Italian.

In his spare time, John enjoys coaching kids in hockey, spending time in 'the great outdoors', and discovering the latest music.
