Eric practices in the area of civil litigation with a focus on insurance defence, and primarily handles personal injury and motor vehicle claims. With extensive litigation experience and having handled motor vehicle claims from both the tort and accident benefit perspectives, Eric can quickly and succinctly summarize a client's liability and damage exposure with ease.

Eric's practice also includes a wide variety of tort matters, including defending clients in trip and falls, tavern liability, product liability, and assault cases before both the Superior Court of Justice and the Ontario Court of Appeal.

When away from the office, Eric enjoys travelling, having backpacked through Europe, the Middle East, and Asia. Closer to home, he enjoys mountain biking, rock climbing, scuba diving, and playing hockey.
