Alex joined the Ottawa office as an Associate, in September 2016, after completing his summer and articling terms with the firm. During his articling term, he was fortunate to act as a junior in the course of two trials, allowing him to gain valuable litigation experience at an early stage in his career.

Fluently bilingual, Alex is proud to serve clients in both official languages. His clients include insurance companies, individuals, and businesses; and he has acted for them in a wide array of legal areas such as coverage disputes, property damage, personal injury, subrogation, professional negligence, construction, and employment.

An avid learner, Alex is constantly finding new ways to successfully advocate on his clients' behalf. He believes in adopting a pragmatic approach to satisfy his clients' needs and resolve their disputes.

Alex is a proud member of Reach Canada, a pro-bono legal service provided to people with disabilities. Outside the legal world, he enjoys challenging himself by playing hockey, soccer, or by running moguls on the slopes.
