Cassandra is an associate in our Ottawa office. She has a broad civil litigation practice, with a particular interest in insurance defence, including motor vehicle accidents, personal injury, occupier's liability, employment law, and professional liability.

Cassandra was a summer student and an articling student at McCague Borlack before joining the Firm as an associate. Prior to a career in law, Cassandra worked in the public service as a grievance analyst with the Correctional Service of Canada.

Cassandra has advocated before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on various matters. She enjoys using her strong research, analytical and problem-solving skills to obtain positive results for her clients.

Outside of work, Cassandra enjoys travelling, cooking, and keeping active. Particularly, she enjoys biking in the summer and is an avid skier in the winter.
