Prior to joining McCague Borlack in 2015, Annette articulated and worked for a prominent insurance defence boutique where she gained considerable courtroom experience. She has appeared before the Ontario Divisional Court, Ontario Superior Court of Justice, Financial Services Commission of Ontario and at appeals before the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board.

She practices out of both the Toronto and Ottawa offices and is well versed with the nuances of northern and southern Ontario jurisdictions. She practices in the area of insurance defence, municipal liability, product liability, property insurance, subrogation, professional liability, marine and transportation law.

Annette is known for finding creative solutions for her clients and having a bright personality.

When she is not in the office, Annette can be found participating in sport level road cycling, running, alpine skiing and cooking.
