Mostafa's litigation practice is focused on insurance and employment law. He has assisted clients in matters before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice and Small Claims Court. In previous roles at both a full-service national law firm and a plaintiff personal injury boutique, Mostafa gained valuable insight and knowledge that provides him with a unique and balanced understanding of insurance matters. He prides himself on producing timely and cost-efficient solutions for his clients while being dedicated to their needs.

In the sphere of extracurricular and non-legal employment, Mostafa served as an executive member of the Amnesty International chapter at the University of Ottawa as well as uOttawa's competitive 'improv' team.

In his free time, you can find Mostafa travelling, watching live theatre, and exploring Ottawa's diverse comedy scene.
