

APPEALS

Appealing an unfavourable trial judgment is a difficult endeavour. Successful appellate advocacy requires exceptional written materials and polished oral advocacy.

Our litigators have experience at all levels of appeal courts and tribunals up to and including the Supreme Court of Canada. Our Appeals Group is able to fuse the analytical and academic requirements of appellate advocacy with the practical and strategic elements that are vital in determining whether and how to proceed with an appeal.

Chairs

Hillel David
416-860-8360
hdavid@mccagueborlack.com

Services

Our Appeals Group provides representation on appeals and reviews in a variety of subject areas, including:

- arbitration award reviews
- banking
- bankruptcy and insolvency
- class actions
- debtor / creditor
- employment
- estates
- insurance coverage
- municipal
- negligence
- products liability
- professional negligence
- real property disputes
- tax

We act for existing clients on appeals, and we are regularly engaged as special appellate counsel on new matters when a fresh perspective is required.

When an unfavourable judgment is returned, and it is still unclear whether an appeal will be pursued, we urge potential clients to contact our Appeals Group as soon as possible to ensure all options are identified and an appropriate strategy is formulated at the earliest stages.

Featured Cases

- Ontario Court of Appeal Decision - Sanofi Pasteur Limited v. UPS SCS, Inc. 2015 ONCA 88

Recent Publications

- Lights, camera, financial transaction: Auditor liability after the Livent decision
- Ontario Court of Appeal releases decision in expert evidence case
- Clearing the Path – The Availability of Summary Judgment
- Protection for Settlement Negotiations
- Gordyukova v. Certas Direct Insurance Company, 2012 ONCA 563
- Enforcing Letters Rogatory: A warning to connected businesses operating in multiple jurisdictions