

FAMILY LAW

Our lawyers provide advice to men and women planning to get married or live together with prenuptial or cohabitation contracts, and we can assist those married (including common-law) in the midst of a separation or divorce with negotiations, dispute resolution and litigation if necessary. We can also assist with all of your family law issues, including adoption, custody, child support, spousal support, and property division.

We focus particular attention on creative problem solving and negotiation in order to obtain the best possible resolution of their disputes. Our discreet, professional and comprehensive services are always customized to each client's unique needs.
